LAKSHMI MITTAL IN ARCELORMITTAL

23.10.2007

Steel tycoon Mr. Lakshmi N. Mittal, the President and CEO of Arcelor Mittal and the fifth richest man in the world, came for two-day business visit to the Czech Republic. Mr. Mittal visited Ostrava for the first time since 2003 when LNM Group took over a major share in the former Nová huť. The main reason of his visit was the familiarization with the development of the company since its privatization and the meeting with the top representatives of the region and the Czech Republic.

On Tuesday October 23rd, Mr. Mittal also visited Válcovny plechu, a.s. in Frýdek-Místek, the a subsidiary company of ArcelorMittal Ostrava. "The inspection took about 20 minutes, but Mr. Mittal did not meet the employees because of the shifts changing," said one of the company representatives to the journalists. He said he was satisfied with the development of ArcelorMittal Ostrava and its subsidiary Valcovny plechu.
